

NOVEMBER
2014

Peninsula Wilderness Club

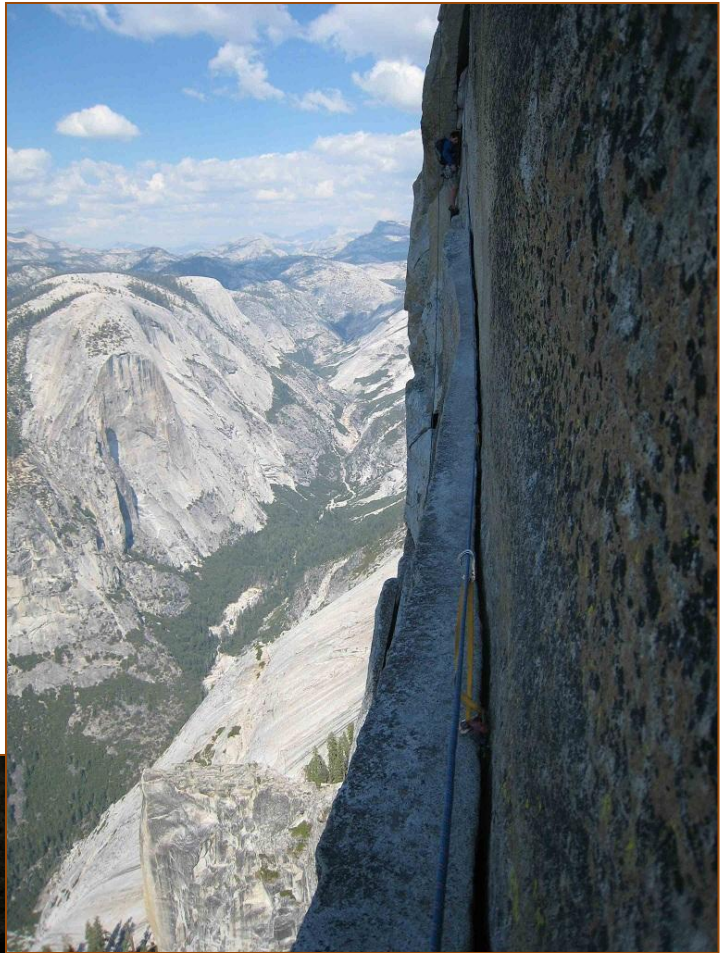

Peninsula

The Peninsula Wilderness Club meets on the first Wednesday of every month at 7 pm at the VFW Hall at 9981 Central Valley Rd, Bremerton, WA. The public is cordially invited.

November Presentation: Half Dome Climb

Presented by Blair Kipple
November 5th at 7pm

A key rule of big wall climbing: When things don't go as planned, regroup, assess your options, and figure out how to carry on. What happens when two Kitsap County rock climbers travel south to Yosemite with their sights set on Half Dome's Northwest Face – America's first grade VI rock climb, and their first-ever big wall? Can a turn of events that could potentially end the climb lead to a convergence that would make their ascent unforgettable? Find out via a brief talk and a compilation of photos and video at the Nov 5th meeting.

A big THANK YOU to the 2014-2015 PWC
Officers and Board Members for volunteering their time and energy to keep the club running over the last year!

Notes & Announcements:

- THANK YOU to the 2013-14 PWC volunteers and club officers – especially Shelley Fleming, who stepped up to the plate not just last year, but she was president several years before! Please make sure to thank her for her volunteer service to the club when you get a chance...
- JOB OPENING! After three and a half years, Steve Osburn would like to find another volunteer to take over as Penwicle Editor. It takes a few hours a month, but some of the process is now automated, streamlining how the newsletter comes together. If you have some time and creativity, please consider taking over this very important role for your club. Remember - volunteers make a difference, and many hands make light work for everyone!

Outings

A Word About Outings

All PWC outings and other activities are open to anyone, but if you enjoy our company and what we do, we would like you to become a member. The persons sponsoring trips should not be considered instructors or leaders. If you are unsure of your abilities, discuss the trip thoroughly with the organizer. Each participant is responsible for his or her own comfort and safety on any outing. Always carry the 10 essentials.

Please Call Early

As a courtesy to the sponsor of an outing you are joining, please try to call at least two days in advance for single-day outings, and as soon as possible for overnight outings. This allows the sponsor time to make arrangements, or alternate plans, should a trip be canceled for some reason.

Pet Policy

Please leave pets at home when attending PWC outings unless the trip is specifically listed as welcoming them.

Carpool and Ride Sharing

We strongly encourage carpooling and ride sharing as a way to reduce impact to trailheads, minimize our environmental footprint, and reduce costs. Please be considerate to your drivers, including situations when you ride with different drivers in each direction. The amount you contribute to your driver(s) should reflect the distance driven, the cost of gas, and tolls/parking fees – short trips might be $5 per person, long trips could be considerably more.

7160 Eagle Harbor Drive

Bainbridge Island, WA 98110

Eagle Creek & Tunnel Falls (Cascade Locks, OR)

Sunday, Nov 23 at 9 am

Contact: Jay Thompson at 360-509-9918, or email: jaythom1@hotmail.com

Join Jay for his fifth hike up Eagle Creek to the extraordinary Tunnel Falls on the Oregon side of the Columbia River Gorge, near Cascade Locks, OR. The trail is approximately 13 miles round trip to Tunnel Falls and back, and only gains about 1200 feet in elevation.

Below is a description of the trail, taken from the forest service website.

"The Eagle Creek Trail is the most popular trail in the Columbia Gorge. It follows Eagle Creek through the forest and along paths carved into basalt cliffs. A relatively easy hike, Eagle Creek Trail offers spectacular viewpoints and waterfalls. On parts of this trail, there are sheer cliffs with no guard rails, so this hike may not be suitable for children or those afraid of heights.

Trail Features: Punch Bowl Falls, where water spills 100 feet into a blue-green pool set in a large grotto; High

Outings

Bridge, which traverses the gorge 150 feet above the creek; and Tunnel Falls, where the trail passes through a tunnel behind the shower of falling water."

It's a three-hour drive from Bremerton to the trailhead. Jay plans to drive down Sunday morning, hike, and drive home afterward. If all the driving in one day doesn't sound like your cup of tea, camping and lodging opportunities are available in Cascade Locks, including a campground with a microbrewery right next door! For those staying in the area, researching accommodations is up to you, or you can contact Steve Osburn who has camped in this area before (steven_osburn@hotmail.com).

Driving Directions to the trailhead: Coming from Portland, travel eastbound on I-84, and turn off at Exit #41. At the bottom of the ramp, turn right. Go about 1/2 mile to the end of the road. You will pass a footbridge as the road narrows to one lane. Continue a short ways to a large parking lot, parking only in designated spaces.

Side note: There is a great photo opportunity of Punch Bowl Falls on this hike, but it almost always requires getting your feet wet. If the photographer in you wants to shoot the falls, bring a spare pair of shoes that you can wade in.

MTTA hut?

Saturday, Nov 29 at 10 am
Contact: Emily Grice at 206-842-7883, or
email: emilykgrice@gmail.com

Emily is researching the possibility of Copper Creek or Snowbowl huts, which are part of the Mount Tahoma Trails Association (MTTA) cabin system. Menu for this trip includes turkey open-faced sandwiches.

Climbing Gym Practice / Social

Don't know how to climb or you don't have the equipment? An "Intro to Indoor Climbing" class is available to help you gain equipment skills, learn to belay, and learn lead climbing techniques. Into the Future (Trips that require group planning or reservations by each attendee)

New Year's Eve at Fort Worden

Wednesday, Dec. 31 to Jan 1
Contact: Steve and Nancy Osburn at 360-697-5982, or email: steven_osburn@hotmail.com

Years ago, the PWC had a group that would camp at Fort Worden State Park on Dec. 31st, go to Port Townsend for dinner, and then hike Fort Worden on New Year's Day. Over time, camping turned to hotels in Port Townsend, and Port Townsend became too hard to get a large group together.

Steve and Nancy are returning to the old days – camping (in an RV) at Fort Worden. We may get a group dinner together in Port Townsend on the 31st, but otherwise; evening festivities are on your own (we are not coordinating). If you are going, make your own camping or hotel reservations well in advance, since the campground and hotels fill up well before this date. Let Steve know if you are going and want to join us for dinner in PT.

Methow Valley Ski/Snowshoe Trip

January 16-19

Contact: Emily Grice at 206-842-7883, or

email: emilykgrice@gmail.com

Skiing and/or snowshoeing in the Methow Valley over MLK weekend is now an established tradition in the PWC. We have been staying at the Timberline Meadows Cabins near Mazama in recent years, but this year found most of our usual cabins already rented out to others. Emily has a house (full), but other houses in the Methow and Winthrop areas may still be available. If you are interested in going, please coordinate with others and see if you can find a house or hotel room to rent. Let Emily know if you are going so she can keep a list – or if you cannot find a house, she might at least be able to share names so you can coordinate amongst yourselves.

There are 100 miles of groomed cross-country trails available in this beautiful valley, and additional miles of snowshoe trails. The group usually does a potluck together, and coordinates day trips.

Most will drive to the Methow on Friday night (5 to 6 hours). If you arrive by 4 pm and bring a headlamp, you might get a short ski session in. Return home Monday.

Winterfest 2015

February 13-16

This trip is still being planned. Last year we rented hotel rooms at the Red Lion in Wenatchee, and did day trips from there. We might do something similar again. For now – it might just be wise to put this on your calendars!

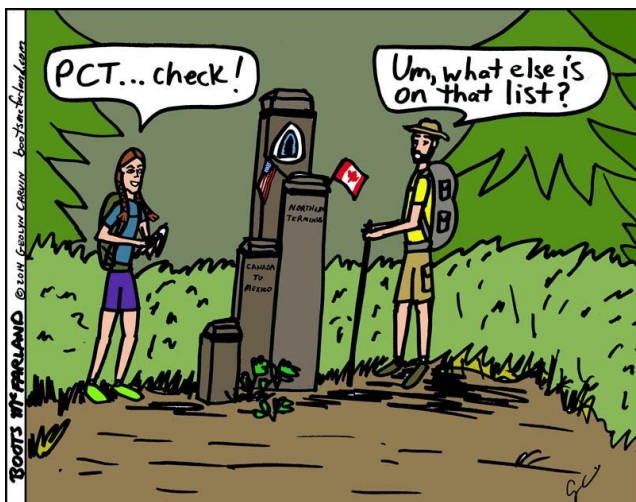

More details on the above trip(s) are available on the PWC Website calendar.

PWC General Meeting

The PWC General Meeting is held the first Wednesday of each month, 7 pm, at the VFW Hall at 9981 Central Valley Road in Bremerton, WA.

If you are a guest or new member, please introduce yourself and ask for help, or look for someone who can answer questions and point out members that share your interests. However, to really get to know us – come to a potluck or go on a hike – meetings are not the best way to get to know people!

Thanks to everyone who brings snacks to meetings! Contact Doug Savage at 360-981-9333 or thehiker@comcast.net if you would like to help bring snacks to the next meeting.

Maria McGuire won the door prize at the October meeting.

Sponsor an Outing!

If you are a club member and interested in leading an outing, let us know about it so we can post it! Even if you list your trip in other forums, including it as a PWC event helps connect people and groups, and helps the club stay active. To sponsor an outing, you can come to a MAP meeting to discuss your trip, you can fill out the form on our website, or you can email or call the info directly to our Calendar Editor, Emily Grice, at emilykgrice@gmail.com (phone 206-842-7883), or to our Webmaster, Jay Thompson, at pwcadmin@pwckitsap.org (phone 360-307-0037). Any of these options will get your outing in our website calendar.

We Need Your House!

Each month the club's MAP meeting and potluck dinner need volunteer hosts willing to share their home for an evening. If you can handle a small home invasion, please contact the club secretary, Megan Thompson, at 360-871-6014.

Your Trip Photos Wanted!

Do you have some great PWC trip pictures? Each month we need your photos to share during the PWC General Meeting slide show and in the Penwicle. Contact Jay Thompson (jaythom1@hotmail.com), our interim PWC Dropbox manager, to find out how to send us your pictures – it's easy, and helps us a lot!

We also need photos for the club scrapbook – please include your name and details of the trip (people & places) and email to Sue DeArman at dearmans@comcast.net.

The Peninsula Wilderness Club is an informal organization for people interested in active outdoor pursuits. Main activities include hiking, backpacking, mountain climbing, rock climbing, skiing, kayaking, and bicycle riding. All outings, from casual hikes to technical mountain sports, are initiated by individual members who volunteer to make minimal arrangements so an outing can take place. They do not accept responsibility for the safety, training or care of any participant, and members are expected to have whatever clothing, equipment, skills, and physical conditioning are appropriate for the outing they wish to join. Members are expected to practice responsible environmental stewardship and must accept that there are dangers and a risk of injury in most outdoor activities.
