Adventures in Alaska

Monday, November 9, 7 pm

Presented by: Paul Lutus

During the past two Alaska boating seasons, Paul Lutus has been collecting a lot of new images, taken from the deck of his boat in wild bear areas (where it isn't safe to be ashore), or from his kayak while paddling in Alaska's rivers and lakes, or while on foot in remote locations. He has met and photographed whales, bears, foxes, birds, and even mountain goats while climbing. He's also experienced high adventure, including having his boat blown onto a beach in a high wind, several face-to-face encounters with bears while hiking, and exploring glaciers with crampons and ice axe. As usual, he has interesting stories to tell about his Alaska adventures, including how his boat wound up sitting on a sandy beach, how he managed to get past an 800-pound grizzly walking on the same trail, and how a red fox – more curious than afraid – came right up and posed for his camera (see image below).

PWC Activity Calendar Online

The online PWC activity calendar is officially up and running. Check out the link on the PWC website. The calendar should become the go-to place to learn about club activities. Any listed event can be clicked on to get additional information. Events are color-coded in three categories. Trips planned for two or three days in the future (say, because of a good weather opportunity) can now be listed. 25 club members can be given roles to change and update trips. Others can email one of the club officers or active members to enter a trip. Until roles are granted, Paul Dutky is the calendar-meister. Call or email him at 360-479-2683 or pductky@gmail.com if you have questions, new entries, suggestions, complaints, etc.

Outings

A Word About Outings

All PWC outings and other activities are open to anyone, but if you enjoy our company and what we do, we would like you to become a member. The persons sponsoring trips should not be considered instructors or leaders. If you are unsure of your abilities, discuss the trip thoroughly with the organizer. Each participant is responsible for his or her own comfort and safety on any outing. Always carry the 10 essentials.

Pet Policy

Please leave pets at home when attending PWC outings unless the trip is specifically listed as welcoming them.

Please Call Early

As a courtesy to the sponsor of an outing in which you are interested, please try to call at least two days before the trip for single-day outings, and as soon as possible for overnight outings. This allows the sponsor time to make necessary arrangements, or alternate plans, should a trip be canceled for some reason. Your consideration will be greatly appreciated.

The WEBSITE: A Source for Outings

Remember that trips can be listed on the website under Last Minute Outings. If you don't see something that interests you in the newsletter, check the website for additional trips. Or, if you are doing an outing that was planned after the deadline, use the website to post the information. This can now be done in THREE ways: you can fill out the form online, or you can call or email the info directly to the Webmaster, Venita Goodrich, 360-698-9774 or vmnotbf@comcast.net. Alternatively, you can call or email Paul Dutky at 360-479-2683 or pdutky@gmail.com to get the outing listed on the PWC calendar online.

Midweek Hikes

Various dates

Contact: Kathy Slocum, 360-830-4693, slocumka@hotmail.com

Kathy is looking for people to hike with during the week. Kathy is relatively new to the area and would like to get out and explore. She likes to do fairly substantial hikes, and she is willing to be flexible. If you're interested, contact Kathy.

Hike Rampart Ridge-Comet Falls

Sunday, November 1

Contact: Doug Savage, 360-698-9774

This 7- to 8-mile hike in Mount Rainier National Park climbs about 3000 feet, traveling from Longmire to Christine Falls. Hiking the extra distance above Comet Falls to Van Trump Park and Mildred Point will increase the difficulty somewhat, but the views are worth it. A short car shuttle makes this an easy one-way outing.

MTTA Gala

Saturday, November 7

Contact: Tony Abruzzo, 360-871-5754

The Gala is the first chance of the season to get overnight reservations in the MTTA ski huts, and most weekend slots get filled at the Gala. Why go? All PWCers in attendance get first dibs on the nights we reserve. Plus, the more PWCers present, the more likely we are to get the weekends we want. Oh, yeah, and you get to shop at REI! For more information on the Gala or MTTA, go to http://skimtta.com/evt\_gala.htm

Pope Resources Walk

Sunday, November 8

Contact: Charlie Pomfret, 360-479-7820

This will be an easy hike of about 8 miles round trip on land owned by a timber company near Port Gamble.

Hood Head Paddle

Sunday, November 8

Contact: Paul Dutky, 360-479-2683, pdutky@gmail.com

Launch from Salsbury Point County Park at 10 am, located about ¼ mile north of the Hood Canal Bridge along Hwy 3. This 10-mile paddle will cross Hood Canal along the bridge, tack northward and circumnavigate (short portage) Hood Head. This is a Class II-III paddle. There are a variety of foul-weather back-ups. So, regardless of your experience level, come on out and see if you can become one of the few lucky folks to have spotted the elusive Hood Head dragon. Contact Tom Henning, khsbandmom@juno.com, 360-895-4018, or Paul Dutky for more info.

Heather Park Hike

Wednesday, November 11

Contact: Doug Savage, 360-698-9774

Observe the Veterans Day holiday with a hike in Olympic National Park. Hike to Heather Park from Heart O' the Hills, on the flanks of Mount Angeles. This is a subalpine hike of 12.6 miles round trip with over 3000 feet of elevation gain.

An Evening with Dee Molenaar

Friday, November 13, 6-8 pm

Contact: Kevin & Gail Gross, 360-307-9022, Joe & Kathy Weigel, 360-479-5116, or Maria at Old Town, 360-698-1507

PWC members, family and friends are invited to an evening with Dee Molenaar to be held at Old Town Custom Framing & Gallery at 3255 NW Lowell in Silverdale. Come by and share a memorable evening with Dee and fellow PWC members, a glass of wine, and a few goodies. Dee will have a number of his paintings on display and available for sale, along with signed copies of his book for purchase. Dee is a long-time PWC member and noted mountaineer (expeditions include K2, Everest, and Denali), and has climbed Mount Rainier over 50 times. He is also an accomplished artist, specializing in watercolor mountain pictures, and a noted cartographer and geologist.

Cutts Island Paddle

Saturday, November 14

Contact: Paul Dutky, 360-479-2683, pdutky@gmail.com

This is a combined PWC/South Sound Kayakers trip. At 10:30 am, we'll launch from the Fox Island Bridge (see map link on the online calendar) and paddle to Cutts Island. Contact Norval Goe, norvgoe@hotmail.com, or Paul Dutky for more info.

Eagle Creek Hike

Saturday, November 14 - Sunday, November 15

Contact: Jay Thompson, 360-307-0037

Join Jay on a scenic hike up Eagle Creek to the extraordinary Tunnel Falls in the Columbia River Gorge. Trail is approximately 14 miles round trip and only gains about 1200 feet in elevation. According to the Forest Service website, "Eagle Creek Trail is the most popular trail in the Columbia Gorge. It traces the line of Eagle Creek through the forest and along paths carved into basalt cliffs. An easy hike, Eagle Creek Trail offers spectacular viewpoints and waterfalls. On parts of this trail, there are sheer cliffs with no guardrails, so this hike may not be suitable for children. Features: Punch Bowl Falls, where water spills 25 feet into a blue-green pool set in a large grotto; High Bridge, which traverses the gorge 150 feet above the creek; and Tunnel Falls, where the trail passes through a tunnel behind the shower of falling water."

Lake Cushman Paddle

Saturday, November 21

Contact: Paul Dutky, 360-479-2683, pdutky@gmail.com

This is a combined PWC/South Sound Kayakers trip. We will paddle to the far end of Lake Cushman looking for submerged and not so submerged stumps, paddle around them, over them... and try to see how far we can get up the Skokomish River near the bridge. We'll enjoy a lunch stop and maybe a BBQ on the beach. Last winter we had a cold, snowy picnic and still had fun. A parking permit is required, but if I get a head count beforehand, we will have them for the group. See the online calendar for a launch map. Contact Glee Spicuzza, gleejoy@earthlink.net, or Paul Dutky for more info.

Planning Meeting: Southern Utah Canyonlands Trip

Saturday, November 21, 6 pm

Contact: Tony Abruzzo, 360-871-5754, or Bob Brown, skipatrol10@hotmail.com

A planning meeting for the April trip to Canyonlands will be held at Tony Abruzzo's home in Port Orchard. Pizza will be provided and we will set up the schedule for the trip.

Guillemot Cove Hike

Sunday, November 22

Contact: Doug Savage, 360-698-9774

Guillemot Cove, located near Seabeck, is a local Kitsap County Nature Reserve with 4.5 miles of trails. This is an easy hike, but expect to get your feet wet.

Deception Pass Paddle

Saturday, November 28

Contact: Paul Dutky, 360-479-2683, pdutky@gmail.com

This is a combined PWC/South Sound Kayakers trip. Launch at noon from Bowman Bay, adjacent to scenic Deception Pass (between Anacortes and Oak Harbor on Whidbey Island). This is a Class IV paddle, with potential for playing in and on waves.

First Snowshoe and Cross-Country Ski Outing

Saturday, December 5

Contact: Barney Bernhard, 360-479-3679

Come join the fun snowshoeing and skiing in this year's early season snowfall amid the beauty of Washington's alpine. This is a beginner through intermediate outing. The exact location of this event will be determined at a later date.

Hike, Ski or Snowshoe Mount Walker

Sunday, December 27

Contact: Barney Bernhard, 360-479-3679

This is a great hike almost any time of the year. If you over-indulged your caloric intake during the holidays, come join us for the 2-mile climb and 2000 feet of elevation gain to the summit. Last year, about half the group skied the 4-mile road, while the other half hiked the trail.

New Year's Eve in Port Townsend

Thursday, December 31 - Friday, January 1

Contact: Jon & Sue DeArman, 360-697-1352

Jon & Sue will be car camping at Fort Worden State Park on New Year's Eve. We will walk the Fort in the evening to watch the sunset. Then we'll drink and dine the night away in Port Townsend, followed by a nightcap of hot toddies around the campfire. Next morning will include a beach hike with Venita and other club members at a reasonable hour.

Fort Worden Hike

Friday, January 1

Contact: Venita Goodrich, 360-698-9774

Ring in the New Year with an annual PWC tradition—a New Year's Day hike on the beach at historic Fort Worden with Venita, Jon and Sue.

Ski Weekend in the Methow Valley

Friday, January 15 - Monday, January 18

Contact: Emily Grice, 206-842-7883

Join PWCers at Timberline Meadows, near Mazama in the Methow Valley, for a fun weekend of skiing and potlucking. Emily will coordinate the general event and direct people to open lodging spots. Two houses are already filled; reservation efforts for any additional houses need to be headed up by someone else and then let Emily know the status.

Big White Ski Trip

Sunday, January 31 - Saturday, February 6

Contact: Paul Dutky, 360-479-2683, pdutky@gmail.com

Big White is a lift-served ski area in BC with mostly intermediate slopes, and a big cross-country groomed trail system below the lift-served area. A couple of beds are still available in a ski-in/ski-out 10-person condo. For 10 people, one condo seems the most cost-effective arrangement, approximately $520 per person excluding food (4 days of lift tickets, lodging, and gas).

WINTERFEST

Saturday, February 13 - Monday, February 15

Contact: Paul Dutky, 360-479-2683, pdutky@gmail.com

Our annual winter getaway this year is in Leavenworth at The Icicle Village Resort (<http://www.icicleinn.com/>). Rates are about $50 per person per night (this includes tax) in a filled condo (2 baths, 2 bedrooms with queen beds and a sleeper sofa in the living room - 6 people); OR, about $45 per person per night in a filled hotel room (2 queen beds - 4 people). The cost is proportionately more if a room isn't filled to capacity. The rate includes Bavarian Breakfast Buffet each morning and high-speed internet access. Discounted lift tickets for either Stevens Pass or Mission Ridge ($41) are available to all lodgers. Six of us have rented one of the condos, which will act as a social hub for our group - we plan to serve a communal dinner Saturday night there. Mission Ridge ski area is terra incognita for many of us, so that's where I will head on Saturday. We will set a radio frequency for our group at the ski areas (bring your radios). For nordic types, there are un-groomed back-country trails at Blewett Pass, and numerous groomed trails around Leavenworth and Lake Wenatchee (many of these require a Sno Park permit with a special "groomed area" sticker). For the price of a ski lift ticket, you can buy a car/snowmobile ride to the Scottish Lakes High Camp at 5000 feet, bordering the Alpine Lakes Wilderness. This is where I'm going on Sunday. There are marked ski tours, unlimited snowshoeing, and a day lodge for those who want shelter for lunch. Ski back to the car via ski routes, travel the easier road, or pay $25 more for a ride down. I'm checking it out for a future multi-day trip. Let me know by the first week of February if you want to go also. Of course, for those who want to shop in Leavenworth, there is plenty of that within walking distance.

For planning: Decide who you will room with, hotel room or condo, and decide if you are staying Friday, Saturday, and Sunday nights, or just Saturday and Sunday (two-night minimum). I have already reserved several rooms. Condos are also available. Contact me and I will give you a reservation code so you can charge your room or condo on your credit card or cards at the discounted rate. If we don't fill the rooms I've reserved, I will cancel them; but if we fill them early, I'll be able to get more at the same rate.

I believe all reservations can be canceled up until 7 days prior to the reservation date without penalty. Early reservations will guarantee a room at the Resort. If you want other options in Leavenworth, go online and check out accommodations such as the Bavarian Ritz, or The Quality Inn. If you would like to connect with others to share a room or condo, let me know.

Spring Grand Canyon Trip

Saturday, March 27 - Sunday, April 4

Contact: Dave Boyde, 692-9325, theboyde@aol.com

No, this is not my usual death march. I am planning an easy (as far as canyon hikes go) spring trip as an introduction to backpacking in the Grand Canyon. Itinerary will be either 2 days at Bright Angel Campground and 2 days at Indian Garden, or a loop from Grandview Point to Hance Creek, Cottonwood Creek and Horseshoe Mesa. Each trip is a 5-day, 4-night trip with only about 16 miles of backpacking, spread out over 3 or 4 days, with plenty of options for day hiking and exploring. Trip is limited to either 6 or 11 people, depending upon interest and permit availability. I already have 5 interested people, so contact me soon if interested. The permit application will be submitted November 1.

Southern Utah Canyonlands Trip

Late April

Contact: Tony Abruzzo, 360-871-5754, or Bob Brown, skipatrol10@hotmail.com

Join us for part or all of a three-week trip to southern Utah! Our major focus will be Canyonlands National Park and the Needles District in particular. A planning meeting will be held on November 21. We plan on spending one week at the group campground (Squaw Flats-Needles District), 4 days will be spent exploring the White Rim Trail and several of us plan on one additional week camping at Squaw Flats. There are 60 miles of trails available out of Squaw Flats, with a choice of day hikes or several-day backpacking trips. We will also spend some time in Arches Park and there are several national parks that you can visit on your way home (Bryce, Zion, & Capitol Reef). The group site at Squaw Flats will accommodate 12-50 people. If you enjoy a relaxed, flexible trip, come to our planning meeting.

Fall Grand Canyon/Bryce Canyon Trip

Mid-September to early October, 2010

Contact: Dave Boyde, 692-9325, theboyde@aol.com

This trip is still in the planning phase, but here are the basics. We will start off at the North Rim for a rim-to-rim trip (for those interested). This is a 24-mile, one-day trek: 14.4 miles from the North Rim down to the river, and then 9.3 miles up to the South Rim, with a NET elevation loss of 6400 feet and then a NET elevation gain of 4500 feet. We will need 2 people NOT doing the rim-to-rim portion to drive vehicles from the North Rim to the South Rim. They can then spend the day exploring the South Rim. Following the rim-to-rim, (after a potential rest/tourista day), we will do a 4- or 5-day backpack trip in the Grand Canyon. We will then move on to Bryce, where we will do a 3- or 4-day backpack trip, or people can opt for camping at Bryce and doing 3 awesome day hike loops. (Specific routes will be provided later.) The trip will be 14-16 days, including travel days. To get it down to 14, I may be forced to skip the rest day after the rim-to-rim, and/or possibly shorten each of the backpack trips by a day. Group size will be limited to either 6 or 11 due to the Grand Canyon permitting system. I already have 3 people interested in the trip, including the rim-to-rim portion. The permit application will be submitted May 1, 2010.

Attention Nordic Skiers!

Are you interested in joining others carpooling to ski areas with groomed trails to track ski or skate ski this winter? No commitment needed. If you want to join the carpool group, register with Yahoo Groups, and join PWCxcskiers at <http://sports.groups.yahoo.com/group/PWCxcskiers/> For questions, contact Paul Dutky at pdutky@gmail.com or 360-479-2683. Having a group of interested members will increase the odds of finding carpool partners, ski companions, and opportunities to learn from one another on the snow. Snoqualmie Pass and Cabin Creek are closest, and the most likely weekend destinations. Sharing the driving makes the round trip more fun and restful, safer, and easier to decide to go skiing in the first place.

Steph Abegg's Night Photography Website

Steph Abegg gave a beautiful presentation at our meeting in October. Her night photography is remarkable, and for those of you who missed her, check out her website at:

Wanted: PCT Section Hiking Partner(s)

Jay Thompson is looking for a partner(s) to hike a section or two of the PCT in Washington in 2010. He would like to start at Cascade Locks and work north, but he's willing to tag along and do different sections if someone already has plans and needs a partner. He's a strong hiker and looks forward to doing 15- to 20-mile days. Contact Jay at jaythom1@hotmail.com or 360-307-0037 if you're interested.

Spring Courtright is back at the Olympic Outdoor Center! She's looking to get reacquainted with the PWC, so she is offering a $5 discount on the Salmon Kayak Tours to PWCers, and she is willing to set up private tours if a group of PWCers is interested. Here's the scoop on the Salmon Kayak Tours:

23175 Indianola Rd NE

The Peninsula Wilderness Club is an informal organization for persons interested in active outdoor pursuits. Main activities include hiking, backpacking, mountain climbing, rock climbing, and skiing. All outings, from casual hikes to technical mountain sports, are initiated by individual members. These members are volunteers who generously offer to make minimal arrangements so an outing can take place. They do not accept responsibility for the safety or care of any participant. The PWC does not conduct instructional programs and members are expected to have whatever clothing, equipment, skills, and physical conditioning are appropriate for the outing they wish to join. Members are expected to practice responsible environmental stewardship and must accept that there are dangers and a risk of injury in most outdoor activities.

Dues are $25 per household per year. Send a check or money order to:
